Thought for the Week

Prophecy received during last week's service: "This church, this family at Eastside stretches its arms across nations, peoples, cultures. You as God's people stand at the forefront of this disintegrating world. You stand as a wall of prayer, as warriors in the battle for the souls of unsaved brothers and sisters. Stand firm, arm in arm across this world. Look not with worldly eyes at what God does in this day but remember that, as in the days of Noah, this world as it is will find not just an end but a new beginning. Be strong people of this family. Hold the name of Jesus Christ before a world that is unsure, that has lost what and who deserves worship. I will never leave you or forsake you my children."

Worship Service on Sundays start promptly at 10.30am. I know it is cold in the mornings, but people seem to be turning up after 10.30 quite regularly.

Pray with Arotahi for our global whānau: Malawi

We praise God that the Baptist Convention of Malawi has been sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ for over 55 years after registering with the Malawi Government in 1973. Pray for the upcoming August elections within the Baptist Convention of Malawi. Pray also for the country's presidential election on September 16. Pray for God's wisdom and direction as we serve in the Baptist Convention of Malawi.
