Friday 10th was our Matariki public holiday, celebrating the Maori New Year, with the rising at dawn of the Matariki star cluster, known elsewhere as the 7 sister or Pleiades or Subaru. It is hard to see down here in our Southern Skies, but more visible in the North Island. Like our European new year, it can be a time to reflect on what has happened in the last year and praise God for his provision and to look forward hopefully to the next year, with confidence that God is in control, whatever happens.

Our church was honoured that the Congolese Independency Celebration last Sunday for our vital support work with the former refugees from Congo. A Certificate of Appreciation was received. It is in the Pastor's office

The Beatitudes are a set of blessings declared by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount, found in Matthew 5:3-12. Here is the list:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven

Heri maskini wa roho, kwa maana ufalme wa mbinguni ni wao. Heri wale wanaoomboleza, kwa maana watafarijiwa. Heri wapole, kwa maana watairithi dunia. Heri wale wenye njaa na kiu ya haki, kwa maana wataashibishwa. Heri wenye rehema, kwa maana watapata rehema. Heri walio safi moyoni, kwa maana watamwona Mungu. Heri wapenda amani, kwa maana wataitwa watoto wa Mungu. Heri wale wanaoteswa kwa ajili ya haki, kwa maana ufalme wa mbinguni ni wao

Do they form the way we think and action in our lives? How do our attitudes, speech and actions line up with these blessings?
