Thought for the Week

Romans 10:14-15 How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can anyone preach unless they are sent?

It is with sadness that we announce the sudden passing of Barry Saunders this week. The memorial service will be at Eastside, probably later next week, but I will email and What'sApp people when I know the details.
